LOCAL NEWS.

A number of arrests were made yesterday for petty offences.

The King's and the Myrtles will practise in their new boats to-day.

The most astonishing news—no run-aways reported during yesterday.

It is rumored that the machinists' boat crew of the foundry will be mostly composed of natives.

Last night the band gave some excellent music at the Hotel in honor of the Mariposa's arrival.

The steam roller was in active service yesterday, improving Merchant street between Fort and Nuuanu streets.

The James I. Dowsett went on the Marine Railway late Saturday afternoon. She will be afloat again, about noon to-day.

The Rev. Mr. Hyde preached at the Bethel chapel last Sunday evening in place of Rev. E. C. Ogil who was too ill to officiate.

The crowd that meets nightly on Emigrant wharf is the most harmonious gathering now in existence in aquatic circles.

Mr. J. F. Brown is Chairman of the Entertainment Committee appointed by the Trustees of the Library Association instead of Mr. Scott as reported.

A bunch of keys most all belonging to Yale locks, was lost yesterday. The person returning the same to the office of the Press will be suitably rewarded.

The body of the late U. S. Lieutenant Peck will be embalmed and shipped to San Francisco on the return of the Mariposa on the 14 inst.

As the schooner Rob Roy was leaving port yesterday afternoon, a native woman jumped overboard and swam to the steps at the Inter Island Steamship Company's wharf.

The James I. Dowsett and schooner Manu were launched from the Marine Railway yesterday afternoon. The Government tug Eleu immediately took the place on the railway.

Lieutenant R. Byron Peck, who died at sea on board the Mariposa en route from San Francisco to this place leaves a wife and mother, who were accompanying him here.

The contract for the building of the Honolulu Lighthouse dwelling has been awarded to Mr. E. E. Mayhew, who also built the Kapiolani Branch Home. Work will begin immediately.

The new garber board that was recently repaired, of the Kapiolani's boat, again split yesterday morning, and but for the tug Kapiolani the boat would have sunk. The boat was towed to the boat-house.

Mr. Ramier died this morning at about quarter to four, at the residence of Mr. Woodworth on Richard street. He was about forty-five years of age and was formerly employed at the Crystal Soda Works.

At twenty minutes past eight o'clock last night a large meteor was seen. It seemed to start from about the middle of the heavens and shoot across the sky in a southerly direction, leaving a long red tail in its wake.

Mr. Geo. Stratemeyer, sign painter, after an absence of about six months returned yesterday by the Mariposa. His many warm friends were ready to give him a hearty welcome. He intends continuing his regular business in Honolulu.

A native with a hand cart trying to keep ahead of the Queen's Own boys slipped on the corner of Fort and King streets and fell in a ludicrous manner. His feet flew up into the air and he came down as if he intended diving into the ground.

The King's rowing clubs six oared boat, "Kaiulani," and the Myrtles' new four oared arrived on board the Mariposa yesterday. Both boats show excellent workmanship. They were towed to their respective houses within an hour and a half after the steamers arrival.

Among the passengers of the Mariposa were eleven Mormon missionaries. They intended to go out to the settlement this morning; where they will commence to work for the advancement of their cause. New developments and an interesting campaign may be expected at an early date.

A collision almost took place yesterday afternoon about four o'clock, between the steamer Kinau and a schooner. When backing out into the stream the schooner passed before the steamers bows, so closely, that when the steamer went ahead it came only within a few feet from running the vessel down.

The old adage that "stolen fruit is the sweetest" was well illustrated yesterday morning, a truck was leaving the dock where the Mariposa lay; a box of apples fell off breaking the lid open and scattering the fruits to the entire satisfaction of a group of mischievous rascally boys who generously lent their aid in picking them up.

Through the kind courtesy of Purser C. W. Carpenter the following has been received: "The steamer Mariposa left San Francisco, November 2nd. Experienced fresh westerly to S. W. winds the first five days, thence fresh N. E. trades to port. November 5, at 11:15 A. M. Lieutenant R. B. Peck, U. S. Navy died of consumption. His body was brought to this port."

Although attention has been called, and complaints made regarding the dangerous condition of Beretania street at the railroad crossing, no attention had been paid. Evidently the horses and carts belonging to the Government are simply to be looked at, and prisoners are kept just for the pleasure of feeding them.

A collision occurred yesterday afternoon on Merchant street opposite the Press office. The horse attached to a Hotel hack and occupied by two gentlemen and the driver became frightened at the steam roller that was in operation near the place. The horse became unmanageable and collided against a carriage occupied by two ladies, damaging the hind wheels.

Mr. Wm. Dunbar, the contractor, who built the brick and iron work of the Spreckels' bank returned by the steamer Mariposa yesterday. It is rumored upon good authority that other buildings will be erected in the rear of the Spreckels' bank, in the near future probably keen eyed Mr. Spreckels sees a chance for a second class workman's hotel, which will also accommodate the passengers of the new mail service. The Press wishes the new enterprise success.

The following were registered at the Hawaiian Hotel yesterday: John Smith, Veri Common, New York, U. S. A., E. M. Walsh, Maui; J. M. Conway, Santa Rosa, Cal; Mrs. Pittman, Miss Rathbone, Liverpool; McDonald Smith, England; Dr. Bidwell, J. Murphy, Auckland, G. S. Tetley, England; L. H. Joseph, New York, U. S. A.; M. F. Miller, New York, U. S. A.; E. A. Douglas, Hot Springs, Arkansas, U. S. A.; Mrs. L. R. Walbridge, New York, U. S. A. From San Francisco, Mrs. Peck and mother of the late Lieutenant Peck, A. N. Down, A. D. Miller, Henry K. Field, Miss K. A. Ward, J. Ward, Wm. Dunbar, from Alameda, Cal., Mrs. Edw. Brown and Miss Jessie Brown.

The residents in the vicinity of Alakea and Hotel streets were much exercised about a continual noise that had issued from the upper window of a lodging house on Alakea street below Hotel.

The nuisance has existed for sometime past, but never was it so intolerable to the entire neighborhood as yesterday morning. The unfortunate who were in bed were compelled to get up and most of those who were already dressed put as much distance between the infamous uproar and themselves as was possible in race horse time. Upon investigation it was found to be an ambitious professor who was trying to develop his manly chest by practising long and exceedingly tedious runs on what is supposed to be an instrument of harmony.

About half past eleven o'clock Sunday night a raid was made on a Chinese Joss house near the Kaimakapili Church. The police had received information to the effect that the place was used as a resort for gamblers and decided upon this decisive movement. The inmates, all of whom were Chinamen, were taken by surprise and attempted to cause confusion by crying out that a white policeman had been stabbed. Their cunning did not serve them however, and the police had the pleasure of locking up twenty-three of the would-be sportsmen. A portion of the prisoners were members of the Tired Society which caused a revolution in China some twenty-eight years ago, and was prohibited from organization within the Empire. The society is reported to number about six thousand within these Islands.

They say: that the best of the Circus is the clown; that the regular police got left on the raid; that Mc Giffin lost his club; that the Commodore, Wilson, means fight; that the Kapiolani Home opening was a half success; that the safest way to get along is to stay at home; that the hackmen who stand at the corner of King and Nuuanu streets deserve the execrations of the community; that the persons who love to tell lies are not all dead; that the King will attend the next circus; that the boy who pushes the cue at Charlie Mc. Charthy's has the charmed hall; that Dick knows how to run a circus; that Denby goes to the coast to-day to startle S. F. printers; that the best way to forget is not to think; that the band played some of the "boss" tunes at the Hotel last night; that the sub rosa business is about played out; that the open question is not political; that the hope of Hawaiian politics is not dependent upon the present administration; that the flaming star which fell upon Pearl river last night at half past eight o'clock was not thrown out by Mr. Gibson or the King; that the new Government ticket published in San Francisco and sent here is a fraud; that the come-when-you-will policy is played out here; that the next to nothing is the after call of the Government for more credit; that the foundry boys will never get left in a boat race; that the clown is the fun of the day; that Mr. Henry Hart is the best looking man in town except the King; that the coming of good times means the individual disaster of the dudes; that the best way to get out of a scrape is not to get into one; and that the coming of good opera tropes will, in the future, depend upon Honolulu criticism.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 2 1885.

Dear Sir: Our last circular was dated Oct. 15th per steamer Alameda.

SUGAR—Our local market continues in the same condition as last noted with no change in prices.

EASTERN AND FOREIGN MARKETS—Since our last report the New York market has ruled dull. Cuba Centrifugals have declined 1/4 cent per lb. and few transactions have taken place. Supplies, however, have been fairly held. Up to the 24th ult., Refiners evinced very little desire to replenish their stocks, and only purchased for actual requirements. The firmness of holders is due to the light available supply, on the spot, and the belief that Refiners on account of short stocks must enter the market before long.

Buyers on the other hand are influenced by the slow movement of refined and the weakness of the London market, prices there having declined steadily.

Our latest mail advices of the 24 ult., state that a better demand for raws prevailed, but sellers advanced their views above obtainable bids, and consequently no business transpired.

Messrs. Willett & Hamilton state that meetings have gone on as large as usual. All Refiners stocks are now at an unusually low point. Largely reduced production and largely increased consumption are the features of the next twelve months, to which prices must conform.

Stock in all hands is reduced 12532 tons, and is now 25812 tons under last year. The total stocks of the consuming countries are being steadily reduced, and are now only 120,000 tons in excess of 10 years, if as much. They also continue to estimate that 150,000 tons of beet sugar from the present crop will be required in the United States. Since our last report the London market has ruled very dull and the price of Beets has declined one shilling. All foreign markets are depressed, and prices of sugar are weak and declining.

Our telegram of to-day reports no new features in the situation. New York market dull but firm. Cuba Centrifugals 95 per cent. test, 6 cents. London Beets 88 per cent. test, 14s. 3d. European and foreign markets dull.

On the 21st ult. the Manila bales declined to $5.51 for 91 per cent., and same is the present basis.

RICE—Market dull and weak, the quote price at $4.65 or $4.75, 60 days.

CHARTERS—Since our last advices consuming markets have declined, and rates have fallen here. Iron having been closed at 31s. 3d. @ 30s. Cork U. K. Wooden 25s. Liverpool. At this writing we cannot quote better than above with enquiry quite limited.

Wheat has also declined. Our Produce Exchange report stock of wheat and flour in the State Oct. 10th, as about 700,000 tons of 2,000 lbs.

EXCHANGE—London 60 days sight $4.84. New York sight 1/4 per cent.

FLOUR—G. G. Ex. Family $4.60, Eldorado $3.50.

BRAN—$18.50 per ton.

BARLEY—No. 1 feed $1.40 per cts.

GROUND BARLEY—Per ton $30.00.

OATS—Fair $1.20, medium $1.32 1/2, choice feed $1.40.

HAY—Compressed wheat and oat $15.00 to $16.50.

HAY—Large bales, wheat and oat $14.50 to $16.50.

LIME—$1.40 per bbl.

A CORRECTION.

In justice to the agent, Mr. John Montgomery, of the Medical Work which is offered at a reduced price at T. G. Thurm's Fort street store, the undersigned would state that this lot was purchased at a sacrifice, on account of being somewhat injured, and had to be rebound. The reduction casts no reflections on established agents subscription prices.
